

Raheleh (Riley) Mirheydari is a modern abstract artist. She studied Painting in Azad University of Tehran, Iran. She has participated in numerous solo and group exhibitions in Tehran, Iran. She utilizes collage technique and multimedia to create her artworks.

Her collections of artworks are inspired by nature, memories and humans' emotions. She believes visual art purpose is to create and evokes memories and emotions.

Raheleh currently is living in Richmond hill, Ontario with her husband, son and daughter. She enjoys walking and kayaking with her family and friends.

Raheleh is currently working on her flower collection, in which she uses pictures that she took during her walks. These pieces are perfect to accessories living spaces and add more color to everyday life.

